

PERSONAL SUPPORT WORKER BRIDGING TO PRACTICAL NURSING

CREDENTIAL: Advanced Academic Standing
PROGRAM LENGTH: Long-bridge six semesters, short-bridge three semesters
DELIVERY MODEL: Virtual
START DATE: May 6, 2024 (Part-time status)
APPLICATION DEADLINE: April 22, 2024

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

This bridging program offers an opportunity for practicing Personal Support Workers (PSW) who have graduated from a PSW program at a private or community college to pursue the full-time Practical Nursing diploma at Kenjgewin Teg/Fleming College (not transferable to the Practical Nursing Programs of other Ontario Colleges).

This part-time bridging program is offered in two different streams: a single course per semester stream (long-bridge) or a two-courses per semester stream (short-bridge). All courses are delivered virtually, complimented by a final 7-hour in-person field preparation course. Eligible students who successfully complete their program can apply for direct entry into the second semester of the full-time Kenjgewin Teg/Fleming College Practical Nursing program.

YOUR FUTURE CAREER

Those who successfully complete the bridging program and are accepted into semester two of the Practical Nursing program can pursue their career goals of working as an RPN in:

- Long-term care facilities
- Community/Home Care
