PROGRAM OVERVIEW

In this module, participants will have an opportunity to revisit the earlier modules. Participants will have an opportunity to further explore what the process of decolonizing means to them, how the journey has been, what were the turning points and explore what has transformed along the way. This module will strengthen participants learning bundles for the purpose of creating an action plan to move forward.

PARTICIPANTS WILL:

- Learn about our colonial and other privileges.
- Examine personal and political blockages to decolonization.
- Examine ways for us to be allies / working in solidarity with Indigenous people.
- Have an experiential learning experience.

LEARNER OUTCOMES:

Participants will leave with the following:

- An understanding of one's position in solidarity with Indigenous peoples.
- A transformative learning experience about decolonization.
- More knowledge, tools, and resources to utilize.
- A network of people with common learning goals.
- Wanting to learn more.
